

Dr. Darleen Claire Wodzinski, MS ESE, MA CMHC, QPPE, PhD, LPC, NCC, ACS is an Author, Speaker, and Interventionist with Orchard Human Services, Inc. and Kinder Kollege Christian School and is an adjunct faculty member with Nova Southeastern University. A Clinical Mental Health Counselor and Developmental

Interventionist, she provides direct services to individuals and families with Autism, Neuro-atypicality, and Disorders of Attachment including Reactive Attachment Disorder [RAD] and Disinhibited Social Engagement Disorder [DSED]. She and her staff also serve children and adults with mental health challenges such as Anxiety, Depression, Trauma, and Neuroatypicality. Dr. Darleen is a Nationally Board Certified mental health counselor and Approved Clinical Supervisor under NBCC and CCE. She delivers professional training, development and consultative services for education and mental health professionals; provides special education advocacy; and is author of “Dead Children Can’t Read” and the “Marmalade Jam” therapeutic children’s book series. Her work supports children [of all ages] of trauma, adoption, foster care, or child protective services involvement; her modalities of treatment include a Fluid Trauma [TM] approach for individuals with ACES [Adverse Childhood Experiences] or other traumatic exposure; and a Psychoneuroeducational approach to complex and co-occurring disorders of learning, behavior, socialization, emotion, development, and attachment. Dr. Darleen also holds credentials in General and Special Education; is a Qualified Professional Parent Educator; and is a Certified Trainer for Early Learning and Childcare Professionals. Learn more about Dr. Darleen at OrchardHumanServices.org or PNEInstitute.com. Dr. Darleen services Clinical Mental Health clients in Georgia; she provides Consultative, Parent Training, Professional Development, and Intervention services on a National basis. (770) 686-0894 DrDarleen@OrchardHumanServices.org
OrchardHumanServices.org DrDarleenClaire.com