

BRIEF BIO

Dr. Darleen Claire Wodzinski

MS ESE, MA CMHC, PhD, LPC, NCC, ACS

4813 Ridge Road, Suite 111-83, Douglasville, GA 30134 · Phone (770) 686-0894 · Text (470) 420-9994

DrDarleen@OrchardHumanServices.org · OrchardHumanServices.org

Dr. Darleen Claire Wodzinski, MS ESE, MA CMHC, QPPE, PhD, LPC, NCC, ACS is an Author, Speaker, and Interventionist with Orchard Human Services, Inc. and Kinder Kollege Christian School and former adjunct faculty member with Nova Southeastern University. Her nonprofit, Orchard Human Services, Inc., provides mental health and advocacy services to individuals; internships for mental health professionals-in-training; clinical supervision for pre-licensure counselors; and NBCC-approved continuing education and professional development for therapists and counselors. Orchard Human Services is NBCC ACEP #7260.

A Clinical Mental Health Counselor, Supervisor, and Developmental Interventionist, she provides direct services to individuals and families with Borderline Personality Disorder, Dissociative Disorders, Autism, and Disorders of Attachment. She and her staff also serve children and adults with mental health challenges such as Anxiety, Depression, Trauma, and Neuroatypicality. Dr. Darleen is a Nationally Board-Certified mental health counselor and Approved Clinical. Dr. Darleen delivers professional training, development, and consultative services for education and mental health professionals; provides special education advocacy; and is the author of Water Keeper – Ethics of AI in Mental Health, Dead Children Can't Read, and the Marmalade Jam therapeutic children's book series.

Dr. Darleen's special work supports children [of all ages] of trauma, mental health challenges, adoption, foster care, or child protective services involvement; her modalities of treatment include a Fluid Trauma [TM] approach for individuals with ACES [Adverse Childhood Experiences] and other traumatic exposure; and a Psychoneuroeducational approach to complex and co-occurring disorders of learning, behavior, socialization, emotion, development, and attachment that conceptualizes mental health phenomena as a Human Super Power [TM]. Dr. Darleen also holds credentials in General and Special Education and is an Educational and Developmental advocate and consultant.

Mental health therapists can register for NBCC-approved training at Stan.store/DrDarleen. Learn more about Internship opportunities or mental health and advocacy services at OrchardHumanServices.org. Dr. Darleen serves Clinical Mental Health clients in Florida, Georgia, and Virginia; she provides Consultation, Parent Training, Professional Development, and Intervention services on a national basis.

YouTube @DrDarleen | TikTok @DrDarleen | Insta @Dr_Darleen | Stan.Store/DrDarleen
(770) 686-0894 | DrDarleen@OrchardHumanServices.org | OrchardHumanServices.org